FAQ

Will my insurance cover these services?

Most insurance plans are accepted, with the exception of HMOs and certain Medicaid plans. If your insurance isn't covered, we'll inform you prior to your appointment.

What if I have a large deductible and/or co-pay?

If your insurance covers the services, we won't bill you for any remaining co-pay. However, if your claim is denied, we'll notify you, and you'll be charged our standard rate, ranging from $55 to $75 per appointment.

Can I book an appointment if I don't have insurance?

Certainly. BabyLiveAdvice accepts credit card payments at the time of your appointment.

Satisfaction is guaranteed. You'll be billed after your consultation, and if you're not pleased with our service, you won't be charged.
